

AWARDS & HONOURS

Neeta secures 13th Rank in S.S.L.C.

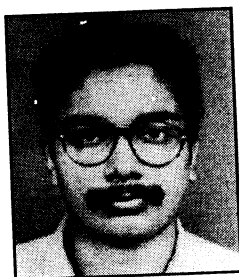

S. Neeta, daughter of Dr. A.P. Somasekharan Nair, Senior Veterinary Surgeon Koithoorkkonam & Smt. S. Sathidevi, Kerala University passed the S.S.L.C. examination march '98 with 13th Rank. She secured 574 marks out of six hundred. She had her studies at Jyothi Nilayam High school, Thiruvananthapuram. She will be joining the pre-degree at Mar Ivaneous college. Hearty Congratulations and good luck to Neeta

Dr. Shiraz Khan wins laurels again

Dr. Shiraz Khan, Veterinary Surgeon, Epidemeology, Thiruvananthapuram has won the coveted "Nana Miniscreen Award" for his tele documentary film on Sukumar Azheekode. He directed the film with Mr. M.K. Harikumar. Dr. Sheraz Khan graduated from Veterinary College Thrissur. He is a well known film critic., Who has won several awards for his articles. He is currently the Editor of Madhyamabodhi and director of "Madhyama Padana Kendram", Thiruvananthapuram. Jiva has featured him int he march 98 issue on winning the film critics award for 97. Keep on Winning Sheraz.

Congratulations, Ashok

Dr B Ashok, joins Indian Administrative Service. He passed the Civil Services examination with 13th rank on all India basis, second in South India and first in Kerala. He is opting for IAS and will be proceeding to Mussourie for training by the end of August.

Ashok hails from Chathannur, Kollam. Born to Mr Balasundaram (Dy.Registrar, Dept. of Co operation) and Smt Rema Mony (SN Women's College), Ashok had his education at St.Aloysius High School, Thankassery, and SN College, Kollam before joining Veterinary College, Thrissur in 1990. He received merit scholarships from Kerala State Government, Kerala Agricultural University, Indian Veterinary Research Institute and Reach Out Foundation. After graduation, Ashok joined Indian Veterinary Research Institute, Uttar Pradesh for his post graduation in Bio Technology.

During his college days, Ashok found time for extra curricular activities too. A students' union activist, Ashok was elected to the General Council of Kerala Agricultural University. He acted as the Editor of the College Magazine and was the group leader of the National Service Scheme. He was a versatile debater, and secured fifth position in All India level debate held in 1995, and became South Zone Inter University Champion in 1994 and 1995. He has won laurels at Essay and Quiz competitions held at University and National levels.

He was adjudged as the 'Kala Prathibha' of Kerala Agricultural University Youth Festival. He won first prize in Cartoon Competition held by Kerala Cartoon Academy .He writes article regularly in Mathrubhoomi and Janayugam periodicals.

Ashok worked as a Veterinary Surgeon at RAIC, Kottiyam, Kollam for a period of three months. Incidentally, Ashok passed his Civil Services Examination with Zoology and Anthropology as optional subjects.

Congratulations and Good Luck, Ashok.